

TRCA REGIONAL WATERSHED MONITORING PROGRAM

Celebrating 25 years of monitoring our watersheds

1.25+ million

aquatic invertebrates collected and identified, representing 700+ species

160,000+

stream fish identified, measured, and weighed

300+

groundwater quality samples collected

10,000+

surface water quality samples collected

20+ million

data points recorded to track water levels and streamflow

45,000+

breeding birds recorded. This includes 181 bird species, including 78 that are of conservation concern breeding frogs recorded. This includes 9 frog species, including 7 of conservation concern plant records recorded. This includes 448 native and 166 exotic species, including 142 of conservation concern

1,700

92,000+